Studio Esrawe Embraces Elegance in Auditorio Nacional's Design

Mexican design studio Esrawe curates a glamorous bar and interior for a drinking spot "tucked under a grand staircase at the Auditorio Nacional." The venue has a capacity of 10,000 and is "recognized as the most important venue for the entertainment industry in Mexico." Thus, the project that Esrawe embarks on was quite sizable.

In an attempt to bring about refined class and elegance to the interior, the design studio creates a glamorous bar that is characterized by warm tones and a gently curved ceiling decked out in shiny tiles. Without a doubt, this approach to the project elevates the overall aesthetic of the Auditorio Nacional with a definite "highlight [to] the iconic character" of the venue.
